The York County Area Agency on Aging will once again be distributing vouchers for the Senior Farmers Market Nutrition Program. The program serves low-income older adults and comes to us from the Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture.

Each eligible older adult will receive $50 in vouchers to be used toward the purchase of fresh fruits and vegetables grown in Pennsylvania. The flyer above contains eligibility information, as well as our distribution schedule throughout the county. You may also download proxy forms and flyers specific to your area.

Please share this information with your residents.
